

Listen to the Moon

Quietly the moonlight
Reveals the pathway
In a soft flowing light
It takes you along away

Listen to the moon
Water mirrors the glow
Leaves and wind dance
Falling to earth below

Listen to the moon
It found a long age ago
Which way to lean
The way to follow to go

Listen to the moon
Life in softness returns
Pause in the still wonder
It's how a heart learns

Listen to the moon
As it takes you on a way
Listen to a heart moon
As love leads you away
